If You Need to Make a Change to Your Return

If you need to make a change or correct the return you filed electronically, you should send a Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, to the IRS submission processing center that processes paper returns for your area. The address is in your tax forms package, or you can call the IRS toll-free at 1-800-829-1040.

If You Need to Ask About Your Refund

The IRS will notify your electronic filer when they accept your return, usually within 48 hours. If your return wasn't accepted, the IRS will notify your electronic filer of the reasons for rejection. If it has been more than three weeks since the IRS accepted your return and you have not received your refund, you can call the IRS toll-free Tele-Tax return information number, 1-800-829-4477, to check the status of your refund. You will need to know the first social security number shown on your return, your filing status, and the exact amount of the refund you expect. Tele-Tax should give you the date for mailing or depositing your refund. You should receive your refund check within 30 days of the date given by Tele-Tax, or within one week of that date if you chose direct deposit. If you don't receive it by then, or if Tele-Tax does not give your refund information, call the IRS office at 1-800-829-1040.

If you paid by electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) or by credit card while e-filing your return through a tax professional or software, no voucher is needed. The fees may vary between the providers. You will be told what the fee is during the transaction and you will be given the option to either continue or end the transaction. If the IRS doesn't receive your payment by April 15, 2003, they will send you a notice that asks for full payment of the tax due, plus penalties and interest. If you can't pay the amount of tax you owe in full, please complete Form 9465, Installment Agreement Request, which can also be e-filed. You may also get a paper Form 9465 by calling 1-800-829-3676. Mail the paper form to the address in the form's instructions.
