General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

A Change To Note

The population component of the state housing credit ceiling for 2003 is the greater of $1.75 times the state's population or $2,030,000.

Purpose of Form

Housing credit agencies use Form 8610 to transmit Forms 8609, Low-Income Housing Credit Allocation Certification, Schedules A (Form 8610), and applicable section 42(b)(2)(A)(ii) binding agreements and election statements to the IRS. Form 8610 is also used to report the dollar amount of housing credits allocated during the calendar year. The housing credit agency must not allocate more credits than it is authorized to allocate during the calendar year.

Generally, the state housing credit ceiling for any state is the sum of:

1. The larger of $2,030,000 or $1.75 multiplied by the state's population,
2. The amount of state housing credit ceiling returned in 2003 from allocations made prior to 2003,
3. The amount, if any, allocated to the state from the National Pool, plus
4. The unused state housing credit ceiling, if any, for 2002.

See Regulations section 1.42-14 for more information.

Who Must File

Any housing credit agency authorized to make an allocation of the credit (even if no credit is actually allocated) on a Form 8609 or carryover allocation on a Schedule A (Form 8610) to an owner of a qualified low-income building during the calendar year must complete and file Form 8610. In states with multiple housing credit agencies (including states with constitutional home rule cities), the agencies must coordinate and file one Form 8610.

If a housing credit agency has granted any project relief for carryover allocations discussed in section 5 of Rev. Proc. 95-28, 1995-1 C.B. 704, the agency must attach to Form 8610 a list of the projects for which it has approved relief. The housing credit agency should list only those projects that had received its approval of the carryover allocation relief since the agency last filed Form 8610.

The housing credit agency must keep a copy of Form 8610 and any Schedules A (Form 8610) (including any amended Form 8610 or Schedules A (Form 8610)) for its records.

When To File

File the 2003 Form 8610 with accompanying Forms 8609 (with only Part I completed), Schedules A (Form 8610), and applicable binding agreements and election statements by March 1, 2004.

Where To File

File Form 8610 and attached forms, schedules, agreements, and statements with the Internal Revenue Service, Philadelphia, PA 19255.

Penalty

The $100 penalty under section 6652(j) applies to any failure to file Form 8610 when due.

Specific Instructions

Note: The primary housing credit agency may rely on information provided by any constitutional home rule city or local housing credit agency under Regulations section 1.42-1T(c)(3) or (4).

Please attach forms in this order: Form 8610 on top, followed by Forms 8609, Schedules A (Form 8610), applicable binding agreements and election statements, and the listing of projects for which you have approved relief for carryover allocations.
