Qualified Adoption Expenses

General Instructions

A Change To Note

Child with special needs. If you adopted a child with special needs and the adoption became final in 2003, you may be able to take a credit of up to $10,160 per child regardless of the amount of your expenses. See the instructions for line 1, column (d), on page 2, for the definition of a child with special needs. You may also be able to exclude from your income up to $10,160 for each child with special needs regardless of the amount of employer-provided adoption benefits you received. But your employer must have had a qualified adoption assistance program. See Employer-Provided Adoption Benefits on this page.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8839 to figure the amount of your adoption credit and any employer-provided adoption benefits you may exclude from your income. You may be able to take the credit if you paid qualified adoption expenses in:

- 2002 or
- 2003 and the adoption became final in or before 2003.

You may also be able to take the credit if:

- You adopted a child with special needs and the adoption became final in 2003.
- You paid expenses after 1996 in connection with the adoption of an eligible foreign child and the adoption became final in 2003. See the instructions for line 1, column (e), that begin on page 2.
- You have a carryforward of an adoption credit from a prior year.

Use Part III of Form 8839 to figure the amount of any employer-provided adoption benefits you may exclude from your income on line 7 of Form 1040 or 1040A if your employer had a qualified adoption assistance program (see Employer-Provided Adoption Benefits on this page) and any of the following apply.

- You received employer-provided adoption benefits in 2003. However, special rules apply for benefits received in connection with the adoption of an eligible foreign child. See the instructions for line 1, column (e), that begin on page 2.
- You adopted a child with special needs and the adoption became final in 2003.
- You received employer-provided adoption benefits after 1996 in connection with the adoption of an eligible foreign child and the adoption became final in 2003. See the instructions for line 1, column (e), that begin on page 2.

You must complete Part III of Form 8839 before you can figure the credit, if any, in Part II.

Definitions

Eligible Child

An eligible child is:

- Any child under age 18. If the child turned 18 during the year, the child is an eligible child for the part of the year he or she was under age 18.

- Any disabled person physically or mentally unable to take care of himself or herself.

If you and another person (other than your spouse if filing jointly) adopted or tried to adopt an eligible child, see the instructions for line 2 on page 3 (or line 19 on page 4 if applicable) before completing Part II (or Part III).

Employer-Provided Adoption Benefits

Employer-provided adoption benefits are amounts your employer paid directly to either you or a third party for qualified adoption expenses under a qualified adoption assistance program. Generally, a qualified adoption assistance program is a separate written plan set up by an employer to provide adoption assistance to its employees. For more details, see Pub. 968, Tax Benefits for Adoption.

Employer-provided adoption benefits should be shown in box 12 of your Form(s) W-2 with a code T. Your salary may have been reduced to pay these benefits. You may also be able to exclude amounts not shown in box 12 of your Form W-2 if all of the following apply.

- You adopted a child with special needs. See the instructions for line 1, column (d), on page 2 for the definition of a child with special needs.
- The adoption became final in 2003.
- Your employer had a qualified adoption assistance program as described above.

Qualified Adoption Expenses

Qualified adoption expenses are reasonable and necessary expenses directly related to, and for the principal purpose of, the legal adoption of an eligible child.

Qualified adoption expenses include:

- Adoption fees.
- Attorney fees.
- Court costs.
- Travel expenses (including meals and lodging) while away from home.

Qualified adoption expenses do not include expenses:

- For which you received funds under any state, local, or Federal program.
- That violate state or Federal law.
- For carrying out a surrogate parenting arrangement.
- For the adoption of your spouse's child.
- Paid or reimbursed by your employer or any other person or organization.
- Paid before 1997.
- Allowed as a credit or deduction under any other provision of Federal income tax law.

Who Can Take the Adoption Credit or Exclude Employer-Provided Adoption Benefits?

You may be able to take the credit or exclusion if all three of the following apply.

1. Your filing status is single, head of household, qualifying widow(er), or married filing jointly. If your filing status is married filing separately, see Married Persons Filing Separate Returns below.

2. Your modified AGI is less than $192,390 or you have a carryforward of an adoption credit from a prior year. To figure your modified AGI, see the instructions for line 8 on page 4 (for the credit) or line 26 on page 5 (for the exclusion).

3. You report the required information about the eligible child in Part I.

Married Persons Filing Separate Returns

You may be able to take the credit or exclusion if you meet items 2 and 3 listed above and all of the following apply.

- You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 2003.
- The eligible child lived in your home more than half of 2003.
- You provided over half the cost of keeping up your home.

Specific Instructions

Part I—Information About Your Eligible Child or Children

Line 1

Complete all columns that apply to the eligible child you adopted or tried to adopt. If you do not give correct or complete information, your credit and any exclusion may be disallowed.

If you cannot give complete information because you tried to adopt an eligible child but were unsuccessful or the adoption was not final by the end of 2003, complete the entries you can on line 1. Enter "See Page 2" in the columns for which you do not have the information. Then, on the bottom of page 2, enter the name and address of any agency or agent (such as an attorney) that assisted in the attempted adoption.

Child 1 or Child 2

If you made more than one attempt to adopt one eligible child, combine the amounts you spent and complete only the "Child 1" line. Do not report the additional attempt(s) on the "Child 2" line. Complete the "Child 2" line only if you adopted or tried to adopt two eligible children.

If you filed Form 8839 for a prior year in connection with this adoption, enter your 2003 information on the same line (Child 1 or Child 2) that you used in the prior year.

More Than Two Eligible Children

If you adopted or tried to adopt more than two eligible children, fill in and attach as many Forms 8839 as you need to list them. Also, enter "See Attached" to the right of the Caution below line 1.

For Part II, fill in lines 2 through 6 for each child. But fill in lines 7 through 18 on only one Form 8839. The amount on line 7 of that Form 8839 should be the combined total of the amounts on line 6 of all the Forms 8839.

For Part III, fill in lines 19 through 22 and 24 for each child. But fill in lines 23 and 25 through 31 on only one Form 8839. The amount on line 23 of that Form 8839 should be the combined total of the amounts on line 22 of all the Forms 8839. The amount on line 25 of that form should be the combined total of the amounts on line 24.

Column (c)

Check this box if the child was born before 1986 and was disabled. A child is disabled if the child is physically or mentally unable to take care of himself or herself.

Column (d)

Check this box if the child was a child with special needs. A child is a child with special needs if all three of the following apply.

1. The child was a citizen or resident of the United States or its possessions at the time the adoption process began.

2. A state (including the District of Columbia) has determined that the child cannot or should not be returned to his or her parents' home.

3. The state has determined that the child will not be adopted unless assistance is provided to the adoptive parents. Factors used by states to make this determination include:

- The child's ethnic background and age,
- Whether the child is a member of a minority or sibling group, and
- Whether the child has a medical condition or a physical, mental, or emotional handicap.

If you check the box in column (d), be sure to keep evidence of the state's determination in your records.

Column (e)

Check this box if the child was a foreign child. A child is a foreign child if he or she was not a citizen or resident of the United States or its possessions at the time the adoption process began.

Special Rules. If you paid qualified adoption expenses after 1996 in connection with the adoption of a foreign child and the adoption became final in 2003, you may use the total expenses paid after 1996 in determining the amount to enter on line 5. But you cannot include more than $5,000 of expenses paid before 2002 in determining the total. If you and another person (other than your spouse if filing jointly) each paid qualified adoption expenses to adopt the same child, the total qualified expenses (including those subject to the $5,000 limit) must be divided between the two of you. You may divide it in any way you both agree.

If the adoption did not become final by the end of 2003, you cannot take the adoption credit for that child in 2003. If the adoption becomes final in a later year, you may be able to take a credit for the expenses in that year.

If you received employer-provided adoption benefits in 2003 in connection with the adoption of a foreign child and the adoption did not become final by the end of 2003, you must include the benefits in the total entered on Form 1040 or 1040A, line 7. Also, enter "AB" (adoption benefits) next to line 7. If the adoption becomes final in a later year, you may be able to exclude the benefits from your income in that year.

Exclusion of prior year benefits. If you received employer-provided adoption benefits after 1996 in connection with the adoption of a foreign child and the adoption became final in 2003, you may be able to exclude part or all of those benefits from your 2003 income. To find out if you can, complete the worksheet on page 3. You also must use the worksheet to complete Part III of Form 8839 and to figure any taxable benefits to enter on Form 8839, line 31.

If the adoption of more than one foreign child became final in 2003, complete lines 1 through 7 of the worksheet on page 3 separately for each foreign child and use the combined totals to complete lines 8 through 13 of the worksheet.
